PRESIDENT TAFT SCORES JOHNSON

Criticises Statement of Minnesota's Governor.

OPPOSES SECTIONAL STRIFE

Nation's Chief Executive Repudiates Any Attempt to Array Section Against Section and Americans Against Americans—Delivers Address Before Two Thousand Business Men in Boston.

Boston, Sept. 15.—President Taft's first public utterance since congress adjourned was made in this city before 2,000 men representing the combined business interests of Boston. The occasion was a banquet given in Mechanics' hall, the largest auditorium in Boston, by the Boston Chamber of Commerce, recently formed by a merger of the Boston Merchants' association and the Associated Board of Trade with the chamber, and it marked the beginning of the president's 12,000-mile trip through the country.

The features of the president's address were his endorsement of the proposition to establish a central bank in connection with currency reform, his words of high praise of Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island, head of the national monetary commission, and his repudiation of any attempt to start sectional strife in the country such as that which he attributed to Governor Johnson of Minnesota in "calling upon the West to organize against the East."

President Taft's reference to Governor Johnson follows:

"Occasionally one hears a note like that of Governor Johnson, denouncing the East and calling upon the West to organize in a sectional way against the East because the East is deriving more benefit from the governmental policy than the West, and at the expense of the West. It is difficult for one to treat such an appeal seriously. Throughout this country there is free trade of the freest character and due to this the especially the agricultural West, is even more pronounced than that of the East. Moreover the East is too close to the Pacific coast, too close to the Middle West, too close to the Rocky mountains, because all the people of these Western stretches have Eastern ancestry and Eastern associations and Eastern connections, and because they have Eastern capital with which their sections have been largely built up and because they are too much assisted by Eastern markets in enhancing the prices which their products bring, to make such an attempt at sectionalism successful. It is true that at times public questions will be given a local color by what is thought to be a local benefit, as distinguished from the general and the national benefit. But such attitude is generally temporary and it takes but a few years of business experience, it takes but a panic or two, to present the most convincing evidence that in this country we are all in the same business boat and that the prosperity of one section adds to the prosperity of the other and that business disaster in one section is only the forerunner of business depression and disaster in another."

Among the guests were cabinet members, diplomats, congressmen, clergymen and distinguished business leaders.

The president was most heartily greeted and at a reception preceding the banquet many shook hands with the chief executive.

Followed Address Attentively.

President Taft confined himself closely to his notes, and was followed attentively by his hearers throughout. Among the points which awakened the most enthusiasm was his statement that there was need of reform in banking. This statement was heartily applauded, but there was not a ripple when he mentioned the central banking plan.

It was noticeable that the diners maintained a grim silence when the president said he would not discuss the tariff in his Boston address, but when he declared with great emphasis in connection with his discussion of the control of corporations that it must be understood by means of prompt punishment that the law is to be enforced on the most powerful there was tremendous applause.

The climax, however, was reached when Mr. Taft touched upon sectional differences. With a rising inflection and forceful gesture he declared as president of the United States:

"I may well lift up my voice to protest against any effort by whomsoever made to array section against section and Americans against Americans."

Practically the entire assembly cheered the speaker and many leaped to their feet in their endorsement of the president's remarks, the applause being echoed by the galleries.

The president was cheered loudly at the close of his address. Under escort of the reception committee and the National Lancers he passed through the dining room to the street and proceeded to the Hotel Touraine, where he spent the night.

GIRL AN INNOCENT VICTIM

Wounded by Bullet From Revolver of a Detective.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 15.—Miss Rose Stewart, aged twenty-six years, a waitress at the Chalfont hotel, was the innocent victim of the warfare between the local police and the squad of detectives brought here from Newark by Prosecutor Goldenberg to aid him in wiping out dens of various types. A bullet from one of the revolvers of the detectives fired over the heads of a wildly excited mob which had chased them from the tenderloin district to their hotel on South Carolina avenue, penetrated the girl's back as she sat on the second story porch of the Cedarcroft hotel. She is still unconscious and it is feared that the wound may prove fatal.

J. J. HILL SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING

United States May Cease to Export Foodstuffs.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Warning that the United States soon may cease to be an exporter of foodstuffs was given to the American Bankers' association at the close of the first day's session of the thirty-fifth annual convention of the organization here.

"The idea that we feed the world is being corrected," said James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern Railroad company, "and unless we can increase the agricultural population and their product the question of a source of food supply at home will soon supersede the question of a market abroad."

This possible condition the speaker laid to the increased tendency of the rural population to forsake the fields and agricultural pursuits for city life and in corroboration of it he cited the decrease in the value of farm lands in the Eastern states and contrasted the conditions in European countries with that of the United States. All through the address Mr. Hill sought to impress on the banker delegates that future prosperity will come in the development of agriculture rather than in an extension of foreign markets for manufactured goods.

The words of the railroad magnate were received with deep attention by the delegates and followed an address by Lawrence O. Murray, controller of the currency.

The controller in his address emphasized the necessity of co-operation between the controller and the national bank examiners and pointed out that the bank examinations have been raised from a perfunctory review to a systematic investigation by trained officers.

In his annual address President George M. Reynolds declared in favor of a central bank with a capitalization of not less than $100,000,000 as a means of avoiding financial disturbances similar to the panic of 1907. The delegates were welcomed to Illinois and Chicago by Governor Charles S. Deneen and Joseph T. Talbert, president of the Chicago Clearing House association, and on behalf of the visitors response was made by Colonel Robert J. Lowery of Atlanta, Ga., formerly president of the Bankers' association.

A pause in the regular programme of the day was made to permit Speaker Cannon to address the bankers, and later the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read, showing the Bankers' association in point of membership and financial standing to be in excellent condition.

Crushed to Death by Ore.

Duluth, Sept. 15.—John Dahl, an ore dock worker at Two Harbors, happened to get caught in the ore that was being dumped into the pockets at the Iron Range docks and he was buried in the heavy stuff and killed. He was thirty years old and unmarried, and lived at Paskin, Wis.

ASSERTS HE CAN PROVE HIS CLAIM

Peary Says Cook Did Not Discover the Pole.

WILL BACK IT UP WITH PROOF

Explorer Declares His Rival Was Not at the Pole on April 21, 1908, Nor at Any Other Time—Declines to Discuss Charges That He Took Supplies Belonging to Dr. Cook—Did Not Want White Witness at Pole.

Battle Harbor, Labrador, Sept. 15.—Commander Peary answered a number of questions asked him by a correspondent.

"Was Dr. Cook at the pole?" was the first question, to which the commander replied:

"Cook was not at the pole on April 21, 1908, or at any other time. I make this statement advisedly and at the proper time will back it up with proof."

"Were you surprised on returning to Labrador to learn that Dr. Cook had reported reaching the pole, or had anything happened before you returned to cause you to anticipate this event?" was next asked.

"I heard it in New York that Dr. Cook was going to bring the pole back," replied the commander.

"Is it true that you opened letters or documents having reference to this point?"

"No," he responded emphatically.

"Did Harry Whitney make any important statements to you about another polar expedition?"

"He made no statement," said Commander Peary. "He is on the schooner Jeannie now and is probably shooting bear on the western coast."

"What life is there to be found at the North Pole? Are there birds, fishes or animals there?"

"When I was there it was not the season for birds. I do not know if there are fish in the polar seas at that spot. There are no animals at the pole."

Commander Peary declined to discuss the charges that he took supplies at Etah belonging to Dr. Cook, but declared that Captain Moses Bartlett could not throw any light on this point because he had not been in Greenland since Peary went there last. Rudolph Francke had begged piteously to be taken out of Greenland. He was suffering from scurvy.

Vast Unknown Territory.

Speaking about the unexplored area in the polar regions, Commander Peary said that there were 1,000,000 square miles of unknown territory between the pole and Behring straits previous to his expedition. He has not yet figured out by how much that quantity was reduced.

Asked with regards to the purple snow at the pole, the hummocks and crevices approaching the pole, Commander Peary said:

"That is a range of information that I do not care to impart now."

Speaking of the depth of water he said that he had run out 1,500 fathoms of line without reaching bottom within five miles of the pole. "We took soundings from Cape Columbia to the pole," he continued, "which give a cross section of that part of the floor of the Arctic ocean. The soundings were from ten to twenty miles apart."

"What was the thickest of the ice and the temperature of the atmosphere?" he was asked.

"I had no means of measuring the ice, which was heavy. I do not care to tell the temperature."

Bearing on the Cook controversy, Commander Peary was asked:

"Are the Eskimos who were with Dr. Cook in his dash to the pole on your ship?"

"No, but I talked with them."

"Have you heard that any Eskimos were ever at the pole before yours?"

"No, never. No inducement that could be offered them would tempt them out on that sea of ice until I went there. They knew by experience the liability of the ice breaking up and carrying people away to death."

"Why did you not have a white witness at the pole?"

"Because after a lifetime of effort I dearly wanted the honor for myself."

PEARY CLAIMS THE HONOR

Says He Is the Only White Man to Reach the Pole.

New York, Sept. 15.—Commander Robert E. Peary, according to the dispatches from Battle Harbor, Labrador, has assumed a less aggressive attitude toward his rival, Dr. Frederick A. Cook, and with Dr. Cook beyond the reach of wireless on the ocean, the flame of the North Pole contro-

RUN DOWN CLUES WITHOUT RESULT

Police of Utica, N. Y., Baffled by Murder Case.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The police have run down every possible clue without result in their effort to find the murderer of little Theresa Procopio and Freddie Infusino, and they are no nearer a solution than they were when the crime was discovered Monday.

Rewards aggregating $3,250 have been offered for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer and every police officer in the city is on the alert.

The attitude of little Fannie Infusino, who insists that she does not know the name of the man who lured her and the two dead children from their homes Sunday evening, together with the statement of Mrs. Gray, who first discovered the crime, that the Infusino child told her the name of the man strengthens the belief that the parents of the children know more of the crime than they have admitted to the police.

Before the authorities arrived, Mrs. Gray says, the child told her the name of the man, saying that she knew him well. It was an Italian name she says, but she is unable to remember it. A few moments later the child's father arrived and talked excitedly with the child in Italian and from that time on the child has stolidly maintained that she does not know the man and gives only a vague description of him.

The parents have not given the authorities the slightest assistance.

Legislator Critically Ill.

Minneapolis, Sept. 15.—As the result of biting his shin on an iron bedstead, W. I. Nolan, former member of the legislature from Minneapolis, humorist and lecturer, lies in a serious condition at his home, 2914 West Fortieth street, an operation to save his life from blood poisoning having been performed. It was feared his leg would have to be amputated to save his life.

STATE'S EVIDENCE ALL IN

Defense in McCann Case to Produce Many Witnesses.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Presentation of the state's evidence against Police Inspector McCann, charged with accepting bribes to "protect" commercialized vice, was concluded in Judge Barnes' court. The defense will produce a large number of witnesses.

S. P. Golberg, bookkeeper for Frank Brothers, was the principal witness. He stated that money collected by the Frank Brothers, as agents of McCann, from disorderly houses, was turned over to him for safe keeping in the vault. He said he kept this money separate from that belonging to his employer.

He stated that he made memorandum slips of money collected from Harry Hoffman, "Dutch" Heitler, Sarah Gordon and Bertha Gordon.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1909.

Bryan thinks that both Peary and Cook must be democrats, as none but democrats could stand being out in the cold so long.

Governor Johnson is to undergo a third operation at the Mayo hospital in Rochester. The governor's friends are legion in Minnesota, and they all hope that no serious results will follow and that he will soon be at his post again.

They do tell some awful whoppers on the ice man, but the one where the ice man's scales were used to weigh the new born baby, and its weight was recorded at 44 pounds, is the limit. This is said to have happened in Kansas.

Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, and John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, are apparently in the same class. The former has been the nominee for five times as mayor of his town by the democrats, and the latter will have been nominated four times for governor of his state by the same party after 1910. The democratic party seems to have eliminated the "too much Johnson" plank from their platform.

The St. Cloud police department has been undergoing a severe shaking up during the past few weeks and the end does not seem to be in sight. An attempt to force the removal of the chief, and which has occasioned columns of newspaper controversy, has so far resulted in the removal of Sergeant Brick "for the good of the service." It seems Brick published a sworn statement in which he took a stand against Chief Quinlivan, and the mayor immediately replaced him with a man who would not talk so much.

The Pioneer Press makes the announcement that Wm. E. Lee, of Long Prairie, is a receptive candidate for gubernatorial honors at the hands of the republican party, but that he will make no strife to secure the nomination. There should be no strife for the position along lines that will breed discord and disruption in the party, and the candidate who has his weather eye open for political preferment will profit if he heeds to this line. The next governor of Minnesota elected by the republicans, will be a man whom the great majority of the party can agree on as their leader, and to whom no great objection can be raised in any one section of the state. Mr. Lee has many friends in this section of the state, and if he should be agreed upon, there is no question as to the support he would receive.

Frank Thorson, a four year old boy was badly injured by a fall from a wagon driven by Bert Gilmer, on South Sixth street last evening. Gilmer was hauling sand and the child climbed onto the running gear without the driver's knowledge and fell to the paved street and was apparently struck by the hind wheel. He was taken to the office of Drs. Camp, Thabes & Sykora and his wounds dressed and he was then taken to his home. Several teeth were knocked out and he had his mouth cut and two bad scalp wounds but none of his injuries are considered dangerous.

THREE WERE REMOVED

Three county Commissioners of Beltrami County Were Ousted by Gov. Johnson

County Commissioners Wesley Wright, F. O. Sibley and A. H. Danaher, of Beltrami county, against whom charges were preferred by M. F. Kain, deputy examiner of public accounts, have been removed by Gov. Johnson. The governor announced that he would take action later on the charges preferred against the county auditor. No intimation is given as to his action in the auditor's case when it should be taken up. Had he removed the auditor at this time there would have been no one to call meetings of the town supervisors to elect new members of the board of county commissioners, nor would there have been a board of county commissioners to elect a new auditor.

The evidence on which the commissioners were removed was heard before Attorney M. E. Ryan, of this city.

EXPECT SUCCESSFUL RESULT

Surgeons Prepare to Operate on Governor Johnson.

Rochester, Minn., Sept. 15.—Governor Johnson will go under the surgeon's knife for the fourth time within ten years today. He will be operated on by William and Charles Mayo, the celebrated surgical specialists, and they look for a wholly successful result.

Sitting alone in his room at the Mayo hospital, Governor Johnson said that he had absolutely no fear of the operation.

"You know," he said, "I have gone through three operations, and I have sort of acquired the habit," he added with a humorous smile.

"I am very sorry that I had to come here at this time as I had planned to participate in the reception to President Taft next Saturday and had not intended coming here for a couple of weeks. But Sunday I had an unusually severe attack and made up my mind that it was necessary to be treated as soon as possible. In fact I should not have put it off as long as I have."

Clean Sweep for America.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—America made a clean sweep of the Davis cup lawn tennis series at the Germantown Cricket club, W. A. Larned defeating J. C. Parke by 6-3, 6-2, 6-3 and W. J. Clothier beating C. P. Dixon by 6-3, 6-1, 6-4. These events with those of the double matches Monday and the two other singles last Saturday, give America five wins to none for England.

Soldier Convicted of Murder.

CROSS LAKERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Rousing Railroad Meeting Was Held at That Place Last Saturday Evening

MUCH RIGHT OF WAY WAS GIVEN

Various Speakers at Meeting Were Optimistic and Community is Rejoicing

A rousing meeting of railroad representatives, merchants and farmers, was held at Cross Lake Saturday evening, Sept. 11th, in the interests of the new railroad proposed to be built through this section as a continuation of the Northland Pine Co.'s road which runs north from Cross Lake. There were at least 400 people from Cass and Crow Wing counties present at the meeting which was addressed by representatives of the railroad company, merchants and farmers interested. Several ladies also addressed the meeting, all advocating the extension of the logging road to a junction with the Northern Pacific railway and the operation of the road as a common carrier.

Those present representing the railroad interests were James McClellan, of New York, promoter; Judge Postigan, of Rhode Island, representing the financial interests; Mr. Newman, of St. Paul, counsel for the railroad interests and Odan Fritz, of St. Paul, organizer and scenic artist. The meeting was called by the railroad people and after the meeting a dance was held and refreshments were served. Mr. Nelly, the promoter, paying the bills.

Wesley Curo, of Jenkins; John Lambert, Wm. Anderson and F. Andrews, of Emily; H. Butterfield, of Eagle Lake; A. T. Kimball, of Pelican creek and others made short talks in favor of the road. Mrs. Alva Eastman, Mrs. Neil McKay, Mrs. A. T. Kimball and Miss Nancy Donavon also addressed the meeting, urging the cooperation of the citizens in the work of securing the road.

Mr. McClellan stated that the road would surely be built as he had secured practically all the right of way and would be built on the right of way secured. He stated that the work of construction would be commenced as soon as they could complete their preliminary work. Judge Postigan stated that in his opinion, it was one of the best locations for a road he had ever looked at, taking all things into consideration.

The timber, he said, was already on the ground, the country was level through which to build, and the people need the railroad. He thought it queer that more of the land was not improved, considering the excellent quality of the soil, but thought that it would come with the construction of the new line. He declared that he had never seen anything in the line of vegetables to equal those raised in this section. The corn was also of a quality which surprised him.

Mr. Newman also spoke of the important work a railroad did in building up the country through which it ran.

Mr. Lambert and Mr. Anderson, merchants at Emily, told of the extra expense they were compelled to add to the price of goods because of the long haul by team and also of the low price they were compelled to pay for produce because of the inability to ship direct to the large cities.

Most of the farmers expressed their willingness to give the right of way, while others were of the opinion that they should have pay for it.

A. T. Kimball told them to go ahead with the road, if it had to run through his house. He had never moved in all his married life of 28 years, but if he had to move it would be the most profitable thing he could do.

They have taken pictures of all the houses, barns, corn fields, etc., along the line, also of the banks of all streams, showing crossing points, from Ed. Kutz' old place on Pelican lake, to the end of the line on the north.

MUST ABOLISH FLAT RATES

Waterworks Department of Minneapolis to Raise Rates to Force Use of Meters

MUCH SAVING IN WATER PUMPED Rates in Minneapolis Shown to be Much Lower Than in Other Cities of Like Size

There has long been a feeling in Brainerd that water rates were much too high, and rates in Minneapolis have been cited to prove this. To judge from an article in the Minneapolis Tribune of late date, it would seem that the rates in that city were too low, rather than those here too high. The Tribune says:

"A material rise in the water rentals, affecting 7,000 consumers on the flat rate system will be made by the water works department. This increase is planned, not only to bring the price up to that charged in other cities, but also to discourage the flat rate system altogether and to increase the number of meters used in the city."

"It is a well known fact that with the meter system the consumption per capita is greatly reduced while the receipts are unchanged," said W. R. Young, registrar of the waterworks department.

"Ten years ago, when there were only a few meters in Minneapolis, the consumption per capita was more than 90 gallons, while today it is only 56 gallons. And all this was done without a decrease in the receipts in the office. This simply means that with the use of meters no water is wasted and the city of Minneapolis has been the gainer."

"The reason for the saving with the meters in the cities where the system is used are, first, that meter service pleases the economical consumer, since he knows that he is only paying for what he actually uses, and is not called upon to share the burden that is wasted by his careless neighbor, as well as the charges in the increased equipment and maintenance necessary to provide for the wasted supply; second, that meters augment fire service security, since, preventing waste; they insure ample supply in case of emergency; and, third, that with the same receipts and decreased consumption per capita, the city is bound to make more money."

A comparison of the consumption in eight cities where 79 per cent of the taps are metered, shows a daily per capita consumption of 49 gallons against an average daily consumption of 206 gallons in eight similar sized cities where only five per cent of the taps are metered. It is a rather unique fact that of the eight cities given as metered, only two have every tap in the city metered and one of them shows the highest consumption, 82 gallons per head, and the other shows the lowest, 35 gallons per head.

Of the eight cities averaging only 5 per cent of the taps metered, in one city only one per cent are metered and the daily consumption is 300 gallons per capita. In another where there are no meters the consumption is 230 gallons per capita.

A comparison of the rates of 375 cities shows the annual rental for a six room house to be $6.40 and the additional for bath with hot water connection to be $6.40. The average for each additional lavatory is $1.74, while the average for sprinkling the lot is $5.20, or a trifle more than here.

It will thus be seen that the charges in Brainerd are more nearly the average than are those of Minneapolis, and that it would hardly seem reasonable to expect any marked reduction in rentals should the city take over the plant.

NO JURISDICTION OVER DUMPING GROUNDS

Ordinances Have no Effect Because Grounds are Outside of the City Limits

JOS. WEITZEL WAS DISCHARGED

Judge Warner Found That City Could Not Enforce the Dumping Ground Rules

The city of Brainerd cannot enforce any regulations regarding the leaving of dead animals or offal unburied on the city dumping grounds. Such was the decision of Judge J. H. Warner in the municipal court this forenoon in the case brought by the city against Joseph Weitzel, a local liveryman. Mr. Weitzel was arrested on a complaint charging him with violating an ordinance of the city of Brainerd regarding the control of the city dumping grounds. The ordinance prohibits the leaving unburied any dead animal or other decaying matter which would endanger the public health and Mr. Weitzel was charged with hauling a dead horse out to the dumping grounds and leaving it unburied. The defense offered by the attorney for Mr. Weitzel was that the dumping grounds are situated outside the corporate limits of the city and that therefore the ordinance did not apply. Judge Warner upheld this view and the case was dismissed.

It seems to be a very questionable matter as to whether or not the county board of health has power to compel the burying of carcasses unless left near a public highway or along a stream. The matter however will be taken up by the board of health of the city and an effort made to find some way to protect the health and comfort of those living in the vicinity of the city dumping grounds.

A NOTABLE DISPLAY

Exhibit of Crow Wing County in J. W. Koop's Window is Worth Looking At

One of the most creditable show windows ever shown in Brainerd is a display of the vegetable products of Crow Wing county which is to be seen in one of the windows of J. W. Koop's grocery store. Every article in the window was raised in Crow Wing county. None of the stuff was raised or brought in especially for exhibition and Mr. Ed. Koop, who arranged the display, states that had he advertised for samples of vegetables, he could doubtless have had much finer specimens.

The piece de resistance is a squash weighing 105 pounds, raised by Chris. Nelson, who lives west of the city. A close rival for the honors is a handsome display of apples, some of which would rival a Washington apple in size and beauty. They were brought to the store by a man living near Bay Lake, whose name Mr. Koop neglected to get. The immense tomatoes were raised by Thos. H. Beare, of the Ransford hotel, in his garden south of the city, and the huge cabbage were the product of David Ebinger, of Northeast Brainerd. Included in the exhibit were potatoes, carrots, beets, watermelons, musk melons, citrons, cucumbers and several handsome stalks of corn with large ears, well developed.

A citizen, who was looking at the window, remarked that it showed that Morrison county would have had work in carrying off the first premium at the state fair if Crow Wing county would go after it, and added that the citizens of Brainerd should see to it next year that this county had an exhibit there.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

A Rare Treat

Burton Nixon will offer a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' best novel, by Beulah Poynter, "Lena Rivers," at the Brainerd opera house tonight. This play has pleased more than a million of people in the last three years, a play that pleases the masses and no saying was more truthful. There is not a situation that is not taken from actual life, and they are not only original, but at the same time perfectly true to the subject it purposes to illustrate. No expense has been spared to make it the best attraction you will have in your city this season. The scenery is very striking and elaborate.

WOULD KILL THE PRESIDENT

A Brainerd Crank Writes the St. Paul Daily News a Threatening Letter

The St. Paul Daily News on Monday published the following letter which it says was received from a man in Brainerd, although the letter was unsigned:

Sep 10th 1909

Sirs I am no costumer of yours But seeing in the Paper that President Taft will be in Minneapolis the 18 I must and God only knows it, that Taft isn't worth honors and he isn't worth to have the name to be President of the U. S.

I had it in for Taft ever since his administration and I be in Minneapolis the 17 also the 18, and I am sorry to say, that will be Mr. Taft's last day on earth for I got to Kill him, for all the People of the hole U. S. knows what ex President Roosevelt marked the U. S. ahead Taft is bound to run back.

I am sorry to say once more. Taft will be the last day on earth the 18th.

Remember I hav to do it.

The letter was marked at Brainerd at 8 p. m., Sept. 12, and will receive official attention, because its contents shows the writer has the idea that God is directing him, and such an individual is dangerous. Another letter of like purport was received by W. W. Rich, custodian of the St. Paul federal building, mailed at Deerwood, although the threats against the president were not so direct.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Brainerd People

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Brainerd cures are the proof.

Miss Catherine Bone, living at 601 S. Sixth street, Brainerd, Minn., says: "From my own experience and that of others, I know Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy for all complaints arising from disordered kidneys. Not long ago I procured a box of this excellent preparation from H. P. Dunn's drug store, when suffering from a weakness and a dull aching across my back. It only required a few doses to relieve me of my trouble and my general system was greatly improved in a short time. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of my highest endorsement."

Announcement

To all users of Heating Stoves in Brainerd

We want to announce that we have received word from the Cole Manufacturing Co. of Chicago that we may sell their marvelous Cole's Hot Blast Heater on the most remarkable guarantee basis ever made by a heating stove manufacturer.

Please read the statement just as made to us by the President of the Cole Manufacturing Co.

Read What Mr. Cole Says:

"You are authorized to sell the Original Cole's Hot Blast Heater this year on the most rigid guarantee ever made by any stove manufacturer. Our guarantee to every customer of yours is—

- "1—A saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, slack or lignite.
 - "2—That Cole's Hot Blast will use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with same size fire pot.
 - "3—That the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
 - "4—That the stove will hold fire with soft coal from Saturday night until Monday morning.
 - "5—A uniform heat day and night with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
 - "6—That every stove will remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
 - "7—That the feed-door is and will remain smoke and dust-proof.
- "All we ask is that the stove shall be operated according to directions and set up with a good flue.

"(Signed) COLE MANUFACTURING CO.,
(Makers of the Original Patented Hot Blast Stove.)

This is a wonderful guarantee to users of heating stoves. It is just what our customers want and is a guarantee from one of the great manufacturers and puts us in the lead of all dealers.

We know Cole's Hot Blast from A to Z.

It is the Original Hot Blast Stove now imitated by so many other manufacturers. It is the patented features giving an everlasting air-tight and gas-tight construction and the patented Hot Blast draft as Cole uses it, burning the wasting gases in the coal that make Cole's Hot Blast the greatest fuel saver ever known, while imitations fail.

We know 60,000 are sold every year. The biggest selling heater made, by all odds.

It is a wonder.

It has proved by years of use that no heater at twice the price approaches it for radiating heat, for holding fire, requiring so little care, never giving trouble—and cutting down the coal bill one-third to one-half.

And the price of heat for the winter is what determines the cost of a stove. Remember that.

Right here we want to say that

No ifs or ands about it. Your money back if the stove doesn't fulfill this remarkable guarantee.

Our Price of Cole's Original Hot Blast is $12 and upward, according to size.

Please remember, readers, that we are guaranteeing this stove against any heater, size for size, at any price.
We sell all sizes, price according to size.

One season's use will cut your fuel bill in two and give you satisfaction such as you never believed possible with a heater. Will you come in and see?

TAKES PLACE OF HARRIMAN

J. P. Morgan, Jr., a Director of National City Bank.

REGARDED AS SIGNIFICANT

Wall Street Believes That the Election Indicates That Harmonious Relations Exist Between the Morgan and Kuhn-Loeb-Standard Oil Groups of Financiers—Alliance Means Utilizing of Vast Resources.

New York, Sept. 15.—J. P. Morgan, Jr., was elected to the late E. H. Harriman's place on the board of directors of the National City bank. By Wall street the election is regarded as one of the most significant of the week's financial developments, presumably indicating that harmonious relations exist between the Morgan and the Kuhn-Loeb-Standard Oil groups of financiers. Added weight was given the event because it followed so closely upon the recent reports that the Morgan interests were about to take an active interest in the government of the Harriman roads, and that the younger Morgan was slated as the ultimate successor of Mr. Harriman in the command of the Union and Southern Pacific systems.

The National City bank, largest of the nation's financial institutions, is controlled by the Kuhn-Loeb-Standard Oil interests, which Monday assumed a commanding position—for the time being at least—in the executive committee of the Union Pacific. George W. Perkins of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., is already a director of the bank, and the additional recognition given the firm by the election of J. P. Morgan, Jr., was taken by many in the financial districts to mean not merely the existence of an "entente cordiale," but the consummation of an active working alliance between the two great groups of American financiers.

The National City bank, referred to by the general public at the "Standard Oil bank," has resources aggregating more than $300,000,000, while the First

J. P. MORGAN, JR.

National, known as the "Morgan bank," has resources approximating $150,000,000. The tremendous resources of the two combined is at once apparent.

The commanding position which the National City bank interests now hold in the Harriman railroads is indicated by the fact that four of the six members of the reconstructed executive committee of the Union Pacific are directors in the bank—Jacob H. Schiff, William Rockefeller, Frank A. Vanderlip and Henry C. Frick.

Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Schiff were elected Monday when the size of the committee was increased and Judge R. S. Lovett was made chairman, filling the vacancy made by Mr. Harriman's death.

The changes made in the Southern Pacific directorate at the meeting Tuesday as a result of Mr. Harriman's death were precisely the same as those made in the Union Pacific directorate Monday, and were in line with the general expectations. Judge Lovett succeeded Mr. Harriman as chairman of the executive committee, while Jacob H. Schiff and William Rockefeller were elected directors and made members of the enlarged executive committee. As was the case at the Union Pacific meeting, no action was taken in the matter of electing a successor to Mr. Harriman as president.

The Harriman stocks moved upward on the market, largely, however, in compliance with the recent optimistic reports.

REFUSE TO REVEAL PLANS

But Mrs. Sutton's Attorneys Have Declined on Course of Action.

Washington, Sept. 15.—While Mrs. James N. Sutton, mother of Lieutenant Sutton, whose body was exhumed and examined at Arlington Monday, and her attorneys remain reticent as to the next step they intend to take to remove the stigma of suicide, it is indicated that they have formulated their plans. The attorneys in the case declined to give out any statement pending the report of Dr. Vaughan, but Mrs. Sutton said:

"No matter what the nature of Dr. Vaughan's report is, we are determined on what our next action will be."

What this action would be she refused to make known.

Dr. Vaughan said he had no chance as yet to make out his report on the autopsy but would probably do so today. The small piece of foreign matter which was found in young Sutton's head Monday and which Dr.

Vaughan intends to examine to determine its substance, is in the hands of the Sutton attorneys. Dr. Vaughan said the object looked very much like a small piece of lead.

Surgeon Spear, U. S. N., who represented the navy department at the autopsy, said that he had not yet prepared his report to be submitted to the navy department but would probably do so within the next few days.

Aviator Refuses Tempting Offers
Fly in Germany.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Glenn H. Curtiss has decided to return to New York, sailing today on the Kaiser Wilhelm II., from Cherbourg, in spite of the tempting offers which he has received for flights at Frankfurt and Berlin, where he has been offered a guarantee of $5,000 and $4,000, respectively, in addition to prizes that he might win. Curtiss has received other offers to go to South Italy and Austria, but business interests make it advisable for him to proceed to the United States, where he probably will make flights during the Hudson-Fulton celebrations in New York. His aeroplane, which was held at the frontier awaiting his decision with regard to the Frankfurt engagement, will be shipped immediately to America.

Flatulence

When every bite you eat seems to turn to gas and your stomach and intestines cause you endless discomfort, it is an unfailing sign that your entire system needs a thorough housecleaning.

Nature's Remedy
REG. U.S. PAT. OFFICE
NR-TABLETS-NR

cures flatulence by eliminating the cause of the disturbance—inactive liver. Take an NR tablet to-night and you'll feel better in the morning.
